Monterey Peninsula Incorporated Stages Dinner at Highlands

Forty of the prominent residents of the Monterey Peninsula—Monterey, Carmel, Pacific Grove and Del Monte—gathered at Highlands Inn on Friday evening of last week to discuss and inform themselves concerning the work and plan of campaign for the newly formed Monterey Peninsula Incorporated, organized for publicity and advertising.

At the conclusion of an excellent dinner, Ray C. DeYoe of the Carmel Chamber of Commerce, who arranged the affair, placed the meeting in the hands of Allen Griffin. Among those who addressed the gathering were Fred Purner of Del Monte, Sydney Ruthven of Monterey, Fred S. McCarger of Salinas, and Robert W. Ritchie and John Jordan of Carmel.

Carmelite Now Head of University Club

The Monterey Peninsula University Club met last Tuesday evening in Pacific Grove. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Hal Bragg; first vice president, F. E. Wood; second vice president, Mrs. M. G. Jorgenson; Secretary, Mrs. Hugh Dormody; Treasurer, Miss Etta Eckhardt.

Membership in this organization is made up of university graduates resident on the peninsula.

Newspaper People Dine at the Highlands

On Sunday evening last a considerable group of California newspaper people gathered at Carmel Highlands Inn. Among those present were George Radcliff and wife and W. F. Mixon of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. M. F Cochran and daughter of San Rafael, Charles O. Dunbar of Santa Rosa, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Olmstead of Petaluma, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Blake of Gilroy, the Misses Downing of Santa Clara, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman McDowell of Alameda.

Sunday Closing to be Decided at the Grove

Over in Pacific Grove an election is to be held next month. The citizens will vote "Yes" or "No" on the following proposition: "It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association to keep open within the corporate limits of the City of Pacific Grove upon or on any Sunday any store, workshop, banking house, or other place of business, or any public dance hall or skating rink."

New Library Books

Late books continue to be added to our splendid library, and the large number of volumes now on hand are the envy of many a community much larger than ours in population. Recent accessions include:

Captain Sazarac—Jackson.
The Covered Wagon—Hough.
The Red House Mystery—Milne
The Cat's Paw—Lincoln.
Four Square—Richmond.
Dust of the Desert—Ritchie.

"Jimmy" Worthington started on his journey to England last Monday. Mr. Worthington is an astronomer and will return here with a number of instruments necessary for a proper scientific observance of the September eclipse of the sun.

Don't Pass the Buck, Gentlemen

(Editorial)

WITH the approach of the summer season in Carmel, and assurances of the largest influx of sojourners who have ever visited the Monterey Peninsula, demands are increasingly insistent that immediate action be inaugurated to put into good condition that portion of the highway between Carmel and Monterey, outside of both city limits, over which the county board of supervisors has jurisdiction, and also those parts within city limits, controlled by boards of trustees.

These poor stretches of road are a disgrace to the whole Monterey Peninsula. Not only that. With the ever-increasing travel over the hill the condition of the road is a menace to life and property.

The elements most vitally interested in seeing that this entire road is made comfortable, safe and inexpensive for automobile repairs are the communities of Monterey and Carmel and the Del Monte Properties Company.

United action on the part of the commerce chambers and the trustees of both cities is imperative.

Let us not wait until a tragedy occurs before action is demanded.

Cast Completed and Rehearsals Begun on Newberry - Cator's Beggar of Bagdad

The staff and cast for the Cator-Newberry comic opera, "The Beggar of Bagdad," to be given in San Jose next month, are complete, the personnel of both assuring a fine performance of the Woman's Club production of the opera. Dr. Samuel Staub, who has successfully directed several theatricals of this nature, will be director general, with Perry Newberry and Miss Irene Alexander, the latter of the San Jose High School, as assistants. Thomas V. Cator, composer of the opera, will direct the music, with Mrs. G. A. Penniman, Miss Jane Johnston and Mrs. Maloisin at the piano. Miss Dorothy Moody will invent the dances and train the dancers. Leo Sullivan is concert master.

In the cast, Harry Brown will extract laughs from the role of Dinky Didus, an emissary from Swat; Stanley Egense is Aladdin, the beggar of Bagdad; Mrs. Ethleen Treadway, Cinderella, and Mrs. Ruth Dening, Mrs. Stanford Bacon, the Misses Margaret Guilbault, Celine Combatalade, Lucille Fox, Charlotte Blackmar, with Claude Argall, Lloyd Trousdale, Walline Knoles and Milton Watson make up the rest of the cast.

The chorus of 16 men and 26 women, with a pony chorus of 16 girls, is being completed.

Grandmother and Granddaughter Have Joint Birthday Celebration

A combined birthday party for Mrs. Julia Ammerman, 67, and her granddaughter, Julia McEldowney, 11, was held at the McEldowney residence on Wednesday evening. Dancing, games and refreshments were the order of the evening.

Among those present at this surprise party were Gertrude and Ruth Tyler, Mildred Chappell, Margeret Castro, Evelyn Arne, Helen Ward, Wilma Bassett, Violet Payne, Mary and Margaret Ammerman, Mary E. Douglas, Tiney Pierson, Mabel and Julia McEldowney, Fred and Jack Ammerman, John Weigold, John Bell, Cameron Waite, Albert Correles, Mrs. Martha Oberdorf, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Beck, Chris Beck, Mr. and Mrs. William Ammerman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McEldowney.

Providing Preliminary Publicity for Premier Production of Play at Our Outdoor Theater

Publicity for the big summer production, "Hassan," at our Forest Theatre, will be handled in a large, efficient way. To this end a committee of writers and newspaper people has been appointed. Mrs. Susan C. Porter will head the committee; her co-workers will be W. L. Overstreet, Carmel; Hilda Argo, Monterey; Fred Purner, Del Monte, and A. B. Smith, Pacific Grove.

Articles concerning the play, its author, its producer, the players, and other information are being prepared by a selected staff of competent and well-known authorities, and arrangements have been made for publication in a large number of newspapers within and outside of California.

Pacific Grove Musical Society in "Crucifixion"

The outstanding musical event to mark the observance of Good Friday on the Monterey Peninsula will be the rendition of Sir John Stainer's masterly oratorio, "Crucifixion," by the Pacific Grove Musical Society, on March 30.

This will be the fourth affair given by this excellent organization, and as in the past deserves the hearty support of all music lovers.

On this occasion the augmented chorus and orchestra will be under the able direction of L. E. M. Cosmey.

The affair takes place in the Pacific Grove grammar school auditorium and a silver offering will be taken at the door.

Honeymooners Here

Honeymooners now in Carmel are Henry Meade Williams and his bride, who were recently married in New York. Young Williams, who is the son of Jessie Lynch Williams, author of "Why Marry" and "Why Not," and Mary McIntosh were students here of the Portia Mansfield school. The groom is a nephew of Mrs. Susan C. Porter.

Carmel Campfire Girls Organize Groups and Enjoy Initial Outing

About forty lively girls hiked up to Paradise Park last Saturday for an afternoon of games, races, a picnic supper and a marshmallow toast around a big bonfire.

There was a fine community spirit shown—the big girls helped the little girls and all joined in the fun.

After gathering wood and laying a fire, at which Margaret Pearson and Nancy Machado, who are Campfire girls in the Monterey high school, presided, the prospective members of the Carmel Campfire and Bluebird groups separated to play games.

The Bluebirds were in charge of Mrs. M. T. Brewer, and comprised the girls under 12, who look forward to Campfire membership when they attain that age. The girls over 12 were directed by Mrs. Therese Ratliff, who will be the guardian of the first Campfire group. Another group will be formed later, when the present groups are in good working trim, as no group can have more than twenty girls.

Guests who dropped in during the afternoon were Mrs. Grant Wallace and Mrs. C. S. Stanton.

Paradise Park is an ideal spot for a picnic, being sunny and level and grassy. There is a large clearing in the pines where the races were held. Following is a list of the victors in the contests:

Three-legged race—Virginia Burton and Vivian Edler; second, Gertrude Tyler and Elsie Keays.

25-yard flight for Bluebirds—Helen Turner; second, Caryl Jones.

50-yard flight for Bluebirds—Helen Turner; second, Jane Lawler.

50-yard dash for Campfire Girls—Tie between Lexie Grant, Virginia Burton and Elsie Keays.

Egg and spoon race, under 4—Winnifred Ratliff; second, Virginia Ratliff.

Up to 8 years—Winnifred Askew; second, Patty Johnson.

9 years—Genevieve Newell; second, Caryl Jones.

10 years—Jane Lawler; second, Frances Brewer and Mildred Pearson.

11 years—Elsie Keays; second, Helen Turner.

12 years—Ruth Tyler; second, Wilma Bassett.

13 years, seventh graders—Mildred Rogers; second, Lillias Carroll.

13 years, eighth grade—Janet Fitch; second, Virginia Burton.

13 years, final race—Janet Fitch; second, Lillias Carroll.

High school girls—Christine Burton; second, Gertrude Tyler.

Guardians' race—Mrs. Ratliff; second, Mrs. Brewer.

Illustrated Lecture on China by Missionary

Everybody is cordially invited to an informal reception to be given in honor of Dr. Robert F. Fitch and family of Hangchow, China, in the Carmel church on Lincoln avenue, Wednesday evening, March 28, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Fitch will give a lantern-slide lecture entitled "To the Thibetan Borderland." The slides were colored by a Japanese artist. The trip was taken in behalf of the National Geographical Society of Washington. The lecture describes the bandit conditions, suspension bridges, lamaseries, gas and salt wells, character studies, and architecture of Szechwand and the Thibetan Borderland.

Following the address light refreshments will be served by the ladies of the Missionary Society of Carmel.

Pine Cone's Log of Literature & Art

Sanity appears to be returning to us. After some of the critics of New York were threatened with death by high blood pressure due to the misuse of adjectives in extolling the Moscow Art Theatre, Tyrone Power brings them back to their senses by calmly observing:

"It is a wonderful organization rather than a combination of wonderful actors. It shows what can be accomplished when the same company plays together in the same plays for twenty years, and those plays are plays of the soil of their native country."

The Codex Vaticanus, so called because it is kept in the library of the Vatican in Rome, was the oldest Bible manuscript until recently. Now, however, is found in Egypt an older Bible manuscript, containing the apostolic epistles, the prophecies of Jonah, and the fifth book of Moses. The manuscript is written in the Coptic tongue and consists of 109 papyrus rolls. It is the oldest Bible manuscript in existence, dating from 360 B. C. It is in the library of the British Museum, for which it was bought at a high price.

Steps have been taken toward the organization of "The California League of Fine Arts" in Berkeley at a meeting of representative citizens held recently. The object of the League will be to foster the so-called fine arts in all branches, the plan including the fostering of the developments of painting, sculpture, etching, block printing, to give lectures, to instruct school children in the appreciation of the arts, and to give exhibitions. It is expected eventually to own land and to possess a building, which will house the united arts.

Twenty years ago a German newspaper established a fund for the preservation of the grave of Heinrich Heine, the lyric poet, who lies buried in the cemetery of Montmarte, Paris. During the war the French saw that the grave was never suffered to fall into neglect and now that the mark has fallen to nothing, the German paper has written saying it would be impossible to continue the work. The French replied that the present state of affairs is unfortunate for everybody and that the grave will be cared for. If values are readjusted Germany will be the debtor. If not, the Germans will owe nothing.

Some do and some don't—we do—so let us serve you a real dinner, and lots of it, Mission Tea House. adv

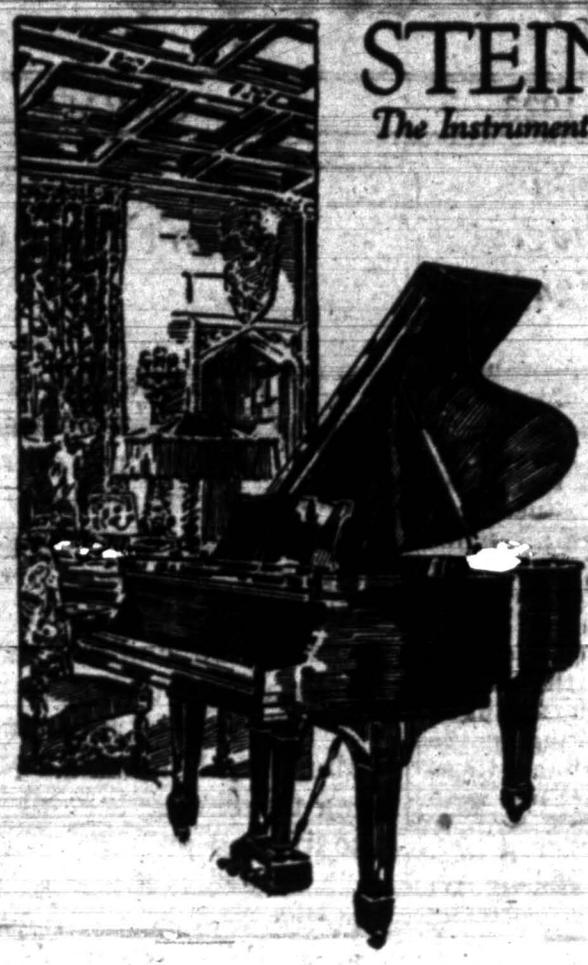
AMERICAN and EUROPEAN PLAN



STEINWAY
The Instrument of the Immortals

IN the early days of the modern pianoforte, the Steinway became—and it has always remained—"the Instrument of the Immortals". Lisst, greatest of all pianists, pronounced the Steinway greatest of all pianos. Wagner, Rubinstein, Gounod and their brilliant contemporaries were equally quick to recognise and acclaim its pre-eminence.

Each year since those great beginnings, the Steinway has strengthened and increased its prestige with those who make and those who love great music.

One of the reasons for this is that the Steinway has always been made under the personal direction and the personal ownership of the Steinway family.

All the materials which go into a Steinway are available to the whole world—but the genius which transmutes them into Steinway Tone begins and ends with Steinway.

To make a piano is one thing—to make a piano for the immortals is another.

Paderewski, Hofmann, Rachmaninoff—the Steinway is their chosen instrument just as it was Lisst's.

Is there any wonder that the mere presence of a Steinway in a home is a token of musical authority and distinction?

We shall be happy to help you choose your Steinway.

BOYS' CLUB

The club had a fine time last Wednesday evening. Billy Heron celebrated his return from the hospital by providing the boys with a generous feast of ice cream and cake. Phil Gordon, who had also been in a hospital, was present.

The organization has twenty-four members and a waiting list. This does not include the summer months members.

The Indian Pow-wow will be held later on. It bids fair to rival the Pirate party of last year. Other events will follow as opportunity offers.

Toy's Position Not Consistent With Facts

Chairman H. M. Toy of the State Highway Commission is quoted as follows:

"We are using the money saved from purely scenic roads to complete the construction of the urgent and necessary commercial highway system of the state."

Mr. Toy, reputed to be a keen business man, evidently has overlooked the fact that "purely scenic roads," such as the proposed Carmel-San Simeon road and other highways, have vast present and future value.

The proposed Monterey-San Luis Obispo highway would be the wonder of the world. It would bring into the state thousands upon thousands of tourists with thousands upon thousands of dollars to spend, not only in travel all over California, but in locating and building in the state.

For the sake of argument, we will admit that Toy is a keen business man, but when he prates of commercial roads as being the only roads worth while, he may justly be charged with narrow-mindedness and a lamentable lack of vision.

With such of their worldly goods, including the parrot "Happy" and the dog "Ruff," Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blethen, who resided here for five months, departed on Monday afternoon last for San Francisco. Carmel stage patrons are now riding deluxe in Charlie Goold's new bus—an up-to-date 24-passenger, 45 horsepower White truck, with red body and black top, and costing over $7.000. Pine Needles

Ralph Arnot was down from Oakland for the week-end to visit his parents.

Miss Mary Yost, dean of women at Stanford, plans to spend a brief vacation here shortly.

Mrs. Van Wyck Brooks and children will join Mr. Brooks in New York, leaving here about April 8th.

Recent arrivals here are Miss Nellie Davis and sisters from Boston. They are occupying the Corrigan cottage.

Mrs. James Swinnerton, wife of the artist, and daughter, Elizabeth, of Palo Alto will spend the Easter vacation here.

Prof. and Mrs. S. S. Seward of Stanford University and their children will spend the entire spring quarter in Carmel.

Miss Mary J. Wilkeson is leaving shortly for Buffalo and way stations, and will not return to Carmel until the early fall.

Miss Marie Hebert of Chippewa Falls, Wis., is here for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Arnot. Miss Hebert has a brother residing in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin Hansen have returned to the peninsula. They have been three months in New York, where Mr. Hansen had a very successful exhibition.

Clinton Scollard is again in our midst, having returned from Los Angeles in time to play first base on one of the Abalone League ball clubs last Sunday.

The candidacy of Miss Ruth Huntington for a place on the local school board is being received with much favor. The election takes place on the 30th of this month.

Albert H. Mundhenk, a designer and illustrator, who has been making his home in Watsonville, was a visitor early in the week, making arrangements to establish a studio here.

A fine dinner, good music, and an unusually large attendance made Pine Inn's St. Patrick's Day dance a jolly affair. Peninsula residents and house guests made up the crowd.

Sherman Woolf, Monterey attorney, has taken unto himself a partner. John Thompson, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, is the man. The new shingle on the bank building will read Woolf & Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blethen departed last Monday for San Francisco. They have made their residence here for the past five months, during which period they have made many enduring friendships.

A motor cop would find plenty to do on San Carlos highway between the "Go Slow" signs near the school house. Cars are being driven there at forty and fifty miles an hour, and during the past week several bad accidents were narrowly averted.

As showing the growth of Carmel compared with other communities, an official of the water company states that 108 new services were installed here during 1922. In all the other Monterey Peninsula cities combined the total was 102 for the same period.
